Stop by the t-shirt table, too. These shirts are guaranteed instant collectors' items. And while you are there, be sure to sign-up for or renew your GPCA membership. There is no better way to support the neighborhood.

Glover Park Day is what “neighborhoods” are all about. So set aside May 31 and spend the day with your neighbors and bring your friends. See you May 31 at Guy Mason Recreation Center, 3600 Calvert Street NW. Follow the balloons and music.

President's Report Thank You Glover Park

Lisa McCluskey

We are looking forward to Glover Park Day on Saturday, May 31. Come out and join us for a day of fun with free live music; children's activities, moon bounce, dunk tank, air tattoos, and face painting; and more than 20 crafters and artists; a dog agility course; a food court with neighborhood restaurants, and more.

June will mark new terms for GPCA officers. As many of you know, my term of three years is over. It has been a great honor and pleasure to serve the neighborhood in this capacity. I will continue as the Glover Park Gazette graphic designer and planner for several events.

Join us, Tuesday, June 3 at 7 p.m. for our last meeting to vote in the following slate: Jarrett Ferrier, President; Chris Finnegan, 1st Vice President; Allen Tomlinson, 2nd Vice President; Miriam Van Dyck, Secretary; Jeff Russell, Sergeant-at-Arm's, and Maggie Simpson will continue as our Treasurer.

I'd like to thank all who helped me in my duties—especially those who served on our Executive Committee and were so supportive of our efforts for neighborhood undertakings. Our agenda included grants to local schools, Glover Park Food program, a group that is addressing critical food insecurity; Glover Park PorchFest; neighborhood clean up activities; household hazardous waste & electronics recycling events; the Halloween parade and decorations contest; our annual Holiday Party in December; Best of Glover Park; refurbishment the Glover Park Welcome signs; the Glover Park Gazette, mowing and maintenance of special areas, including neighborhood benches; ongoing work to support funding for local programs, including schools and senior programs, and of course Glover Park Day!

Many, many thanks to the volunteers who made it all possible! A special thanks to Sheila Meehan for her ongoing service, month after month, as Editor of the Glover Park Gazette.
